

FARSHA 2014 COR Business Plan – Evaluation:

Notes:

- FARSHA’s Regional Safety Consultants are referred to as RSC’s
- Outcomes verses anticipated outcomes will be reported on a semiannual basis

A. FARSHA Internal Plan

ACTIVITY TYPE	ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION	ANTICIPATED OUTCOMES Jan - Dec	Actual Outcomes 2014
Auditor Training	Train External auditors on FARSHA’s audit tool	Train 1 external auditor	Examined and coached 1 external auditor
Auditor Training	Train Internal auditors on FARSHA’s audit tool	Train 12 internal auditors	10 internal auditors trained
RSC’s and AHSS’s Training	Training for RSC’s and Safety Advisors on FARSHA’s COR Program	Continue training of all RSC’s and Safety Advisors	1 day at annual training seminar, 6 days one on one onsite training
Promotion Communication	Continuation of FARSHA’s COR communication and marketing program	FARSHA will promote COR to industry associations and communication in its Newsletter	2 internal newsletters, Advertised in 7 different magazines, 37 publications including multiple issues of Beef In BC, BC Fruit Growers, BC Berry Growers, Canadian Grapes to Wine, Country Life in BC and a WorkSafeBC publication (confined space)
COR Presentations	RSC’s and Safety Advisors will deliver COR presentation to associations, groups and organization.	RSC’s and Safety Advisors will conduct 10 COR multi-media presentations	17 presentations were conducted to various associations, groups and organizations throughout the province
Conduct Baseline Audits	FARSHA’s RSC’s and Safety Advisors will assist firms to conduct baseline audit prior to registering for COR	Conduct/assist with 18 baseline audits	11 baseline audits were conducted throughout the province
Conduct Qualifying Audits	FARSHA will coordinate/arrange for firms to conduct qualifying audits prior to December 31st	12 qualifying audits to be completed prior to Dec 31, 2014	7 qualifying audits were completed throughout the province prior to the deadline of December 31, 2014.