

Inspection Checklist
Location:
Name of Inspector(s):
Date of Inspection:
Inspection Items	✓	Corrective Action Planned	Who is Responsible	Action Date
Circuit boxes are kept clean, are not exposed to leaks or water, and are marked with clear signs.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Light fixtures are kept clean, and are not exposed to leaks or water.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Extension cords are not being used as long-term wiring.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
All extension cords are suitable for heavy-duty use, and are in good condition.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
All electrical tools have either a three-prong cord or are clearly marked as "double-insulated."	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
All electrical cords and connections are well out of the reach of animals.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Ground fault circuit interrupters (GFCIs) are installed at all outdoor receptacles, in washrooms, and in all other damp or wet locations.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Overhead power lines allow a clearance of at least ten feet from all farm equipment or machinery that may pass underneath; overhead power lines are clearly marked.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
At least one ladder on the farm is made of non-conducting wood or fiberglass for work around electrical fixtures.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Other Notes:

