

Inspection Checklist

Location:

Name of Inspector(s):

Date of Inspection:

Inspection Items	✓	Corrective Action Planned	Who is Responsible	Action Date
Signs are posted around the manure pit to clearly warn of the potentially deadly atmosphere.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Access to the manure pit, sumps, and pumps is limited.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
All holes and openings to underground manure pits are covered by sturdy gratings, to prevent accidental entry.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Outdoor manure lagoons are completely fenced off, and posted with warning signs.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
If a cable-driven scraper is used, all alleys are kept free of obstructions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
If a cable-driven scraper is used, the mechanisms, belts, and other moving parts are completely guarded.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
The manure pit, if enclosed, has at least two openings for air circulation.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
High-volume ventilation fans can supply fresh air around the manure pit, and drive contaminated air away from people, animals, and buildings.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A
Any ramps or work platforms around the manure pit are guarded with raised curbs or bull rails to prevent vehicles driving or sliding off the edge into the pit.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> N/A

Other Notes:

